
Rescinds Policy Number: GAIAIssued: 2/28/1979

There shall be no soliciting from or selling to students or staff within the school without approval of the Principal.

No employee shall solicit money from students or parents for additional materials or equipment or create impressions with students that such equipment or materials are necessary; nor shall it be a practice to solicit materials or services in any manner that would cause a parent to feel undue or unnecessary pressure.

Soliciting outside the school premises for funds for school activities, or sales of products outside the school premises for school activities by the students or staff of any school, in the name of any school, or in behalf of any school, shall have the prior written approval of the Superintendent and the Principal. All money collected and expended as the result of such activities shall be recorded in the accounts of the school treasurer and shall be subject to the annual school audit.

Solicitation or borrowing of products for school activities shall have the Principal's approval.

No employee shall set as a precondition of participation any requirement calling for an expenditure of money nor for selling or soliciting by a parent, guardian, or student, except with the knowledge and consent of the Principal.
